Re: Ex Parte Presentation in MB Docket 04-61, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: High Bandwidth Digital Content Protection; MB Docket 04-62, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: Content Protection Recordable Media for Video Content; and MB Docket 04-64, In the Matter of Digital Output Protection Technology and Recording Method Certifications: Digital Transmission Content Protection.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, July 27, 2004, Sara W. Morris of Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, representing Philips Electronics North America Corporation ("Philips"), communicated electronically with Jon Cody, Legal Advisor to Chairman Powell; Jordan Goldstein, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Copps; and Catherine Bohigian, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Martin, in response to requests from FCC staff regarding various means by which the Commission might address the potential anticompetitive implications of the licenses associated with the Certifications in the above-referenced proceedings.

In accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.1206, one copy of this letter is being filed electronically. Please direct any questions concerning this matter to the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara W. Morris
Government Affairs Policy Advisor
